

Kindness Rocks!

Decorate rocks with inspirational messages, and then leave them in public places or give them to someone who may need them. They're also a great addition to a garden!

Supplies

- ☐ Small smooth rocks (about 3" across works best)
- $\hfill \square$ Variety of acrylic or spray paint colors
- ☐ Paint brushes
- ☐ Sharpies or paint pens
- $\hfill \square$ Book or sheet of positive words and quotes
- ☐ Optional: Clear acrylic spray (to seal rocks)

Directions

- 1. Paint your rock and let it dry.
- 2. With paint pens or sharpies, decorate your rock with an inspirational message or word.
- 3. Keep your rock for self-encouragement or give your rock away.

Discussion Question:

What does a kindness campaign look like to you? How can you spread positivity in your school?
